The Professional Achievement Award recognizes outstanding achievements and leadership in a specialized area of our profession, or an individual who exemplifies excellence in Health Information by bringing credit to the Association and our professional community.

The OHIMA 2010 Professional Achievement Award goes to Cathy Moore.

One only needs to look at her resume to recognize that she exemplifies excellence in Health Information. A few of Cathy's positions include: Health Information Management Consultant for Long Term Care facilities, instructor for a Health Information Technology program, developing and teaching a class concerning health records in long-term care facilities; as well as previously being a supervisor in medical records in her early career.

She currently takes students for practical experience in the field of HIM in long-term care, as well as providing many in-service educational opportunities for facilities, nursing and ancillary professionals and professional associations concerning areas in long-term care and health in general. Cathy also has authored and edited numerous publications and manuals.
